- He goes to Bohemia magazine headquarters to meet journalist Rodolfo Rodríguez Zaldívar, who was working on a survey about the probable return of former president Prío to Cuba. He answers some questions and leaves him with the farewell statements he just wrote, which would be later published in the next issue of the magazine.
- He visits Carmen Castro Porta, in Paseo Avenue and 25 streets, to read to the Martian Women his farewell statement. In the afternoon he meets in a cafeteria located at the intersection of L and 21st with José Antonio Echeverría and Fructuoso Rodríguez, President and Vice President of the University Students Federation, to inform them of his decision to leave for Mexico and coordinate efforts in the fight against tyranny
